DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 21-27 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,745,546. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the extruder in combination with the casting drum is inherently a means to melt, transport and pump polymer.

The Examiner notes that limitations to the types of material processed, in this case polymer, active fill and placebo fill do not further limit the structure of the apparatus claimed.

3. Claims 21-27 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-18 of U.S. Patent No. 6,884,060 in view of Schonmann et al (4,894,978).

Claims 1-18 of 6,884,060 largely teach the apparatus as claimed.

Claims 1-18 of 6,884,060 fail to teach the film preparation apparatus in combination with capsule forming dies and a valved injection wedge.

Schonmann et al teach a valved injection wedge for transporting different materials and adapted to switch between different materials (Fig 5, col 5, lines 10-22 and Figs 1-4 which show varying ratios of materials within a capsule formed with the same injection wedge) for the purpose of forming multi-component capsules.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the Applicant's invention to have modified the apparatus of 6,884,060 with a valved injection wedge as taught by Schonmann et al because it enables the production of multi-component capsules.

The Examiner notes that limitations to the types of material processed, in this case polymer, active fill and placebo fill do not further limit the structure of the apparatus claimed.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 26 is objected to because of the following informalities: a) "at least two fill hoppers at least two sets of fill lines" in claim 26 is grammatically awkward and should be changed to --at least two fill hoppers and at least two sets of fill lines--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 1722

6. Claims 21-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: between the casting drum unit and the plurality of movable dies.

7. Claims 21-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 21 is vague and indefinite because the limitation “on demand” at line 2 of claim 21 appears to be a process limitation, which is inappropriate in an apparatus claim. Furthermore, one would not know upon what’s or who’s demand the material is melted.

Claim 21 is vague and indefinite because the limitation “used to transport ... to an extrusion device” is unclear. Such a limitation amounts to an inappropriate method limitation, and one would not know the structural representation of the limitation.

Claim 21 is vague and indefinite because the limitation “adapted to switch between the placebo fill material and the active fill material” is unclear. One would not know the structural representation of the limitation.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 1722

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
